

The Compiler.

H. J. STANLEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 6, 1865.

PROFOUND SETTLEMENTS.

The publication of The Compiler costs more than double what it did before the war, whilst every dollar's worth of material required must be paid cash. Having but a limited "working capital," we are compelled to ask prompt settlements. Such is the rule in business matters generally, and it should be especially so in the newspaper line. No other branch suffers more by protracted credit, because in none other are the accounts so widely scattered.

Paper is again going up—indeed, has already reached an enormous figure—and no matter how much higher it may go, we must have it. Whilst we are, then, sparing no expense to meet the wants of our patrons, it is unreasonable that we ask payment as promptly as we are compelled to make them?

"Dunning" is always unpleasant, but the large daily demands upon us leave no other course. All who owe us for subscription, advertising and jobbing, will be performing a duty, and conferring a favor, by paying up without delay.

State Committee Meeting.

The Democratic State Central Committee will meet at the Bueler House, in Harrisburg, on the 21st inst. A full attendance is specially requested. This looks like going to work early and in earnest, which we are glad to see.

An Early Convention and Thorough Organization.

The Age advocates the holding of the Democratic State Convention, for the nomination of a candidate for Governor, on the 4th of March next. We "second the motion." Give the party time for thorough organization, and it will carry the State. Let us have an active canvas—a general stirring up—reaching the popular mind and the popular heart everywhere. The Convention in March, should be followed by a great State Mass Meeting, at some central point, in June, or on the fourth of July, to ratify the nomination,—and from this gathering that enthusiasm which always leads to activity, would go out and spread, firing up the whole Commonwealth, and leading to victory in October. So believing, we urge this, or a similar course, upon the attention of the State Central Committee.

Thanksgiving.

President Johnson has appointed Thursday, the 7th of December, as a day of National Thanksgiving. The proclamation of the President meets with universal approbation, and already several of the Governors of the States named the same day. The rest will doubtless follow—source which should always be taken.

Important from Washington.

A special Washington dispatch in Friday's Sun says Stanton must go out of the Cabinet—and that a number of radicals who visited Washington to lampoon the President into their crazy measures, have gone home in great rage. Good!

The Border Sufferers.

The following, from the Lancaster Intelligencer, will afford rather cold comfort to such of the Border Sufferers as allowed themselves to be influenced by "Republican Promises" at the late election:

Before the election, Hon. Thaddeus Stevens went over to Gettysburg and made a speech in favor of paying the border people for the losses they sustained during the war. He did this to secure votes for the Republican candidates, and we do not doubt that his speech produced much effect. Now, that the election is over, the Express, one of Mr. Stevens' organs in Lancaster, publishes an article on the subject of "War-Damages," in which it is said that "Congress must set its face as flint against them all."

The worst feature of this article in the Express is its reflection on the patriotism and courage of the people of Pennsylvania. It injures them by denying them the right to compensation for damages, and then insults them in the following terms:

"It was the misfortune of the Peninsylvanians that they lived where Lee could get at them, not to say their fault, and sat tamely down and waited his coming, with little or no preparation for resistance."

It affords us much pleasure to publish the fact that our friend Wm. S. Stenger, Esq., has been re-elected District Attorney of Franklin county. His majority on the home vote was 8, which the soldier vote resulted to 3. He was sworn in on Wednesday.

Brig. Gen. Charles T. Campbell, of Chambersburg, who was mustered out under the order promulgated sometime ago, honorably discharging a large number of general officers, has been reinstated by order of the War Department.

At a recent sale of the personal property of the estate of Maria Eichelberger, deceased, in Hanover, 72 shares of stock in the Hanover Savings Fund Society were sold at prices ranging from $18.25 to $18.50. The par value is $10.00.

The Democratic gain in five States is about one hundred thousand votes this year. This will go to begin with. Another hundred thousand gain next year will elect a conservative Congress and place the country "all right."

The most outrageous persecution of Catholic priests is going on in Missouri, under the rule of the godless, radicals. A number of priests, who have never preached politics nor sympathized with the rebellion, have been arrested. Some have been held in jail, some fined, and others imprisoned among burglars and other vile characters, for merely refusing to obtain, from the radical infidels, a license to preach the gospel!

In Montgomery county, Md., the Democrats have adopted resolutions in favor of sustaining President Johnson's reconstruction policy, opposing negro suffrage, thanking Hon. M. Blair and F. P. Blair, Esq., for their open, active and absolute denunciation of the Registry law, and its friends and supporters."

The rebel Gen. Longstreet passed through Hargrave, on his way to Washington, the other day.

GROSS OUTRAGE.

Infamous Republican Fraud in Philadelphia.

A most shameless fraud has been perpetrated by Republicans in Philadelphia in the return of soldier votes. The Age gives the particulars, as follows:

The return of the so-called army vote in the election for City Commissioner bears upon their face the most unmistakable evidence of fraud, and yet the election of John Given by that vote has been certified by a majority of the Return Judges.

Let us examine some of the circumstances connected with these alleged returns of votes from the army. In the first place, returns are said to have been received from eight companies of the 19th Pennsylvania Cavalry. Now, this regiment was consolidated into a battalion more than six months since, and there are not now eight companies from which returns can be received. In the next place, the number of votes said to have been cast in many of the companies forbids the idea that the returns are genuine. One company is set down as having polled 86 votes, another company in the same force is credited with 70, while company 1, heavy artillery, is marked as having deposited 78 votes. Now, no one who has the slightest knowledge of the manner in which those companies have been reduced in active service will believe that they polled anything like this number of votes. The fraud here is beyond question.

Again, the manner of making the returns shows that the whole thing is a duplicate of the celebrated "Schimmeleingraud" of 1861. The envelopes in which the alleged returns were received are all of the same size and pattern, and the address is written in the same hand, although some purport to have been made up in Virginia and some in Louisiana. More than this, they bear the postmarks of Washington and New York alone, and the date is the 25th of October, now, no steamer from New Orleans or any Southern port that could bring returns from the regiments stationed at or near Baton Rouge arrived in New York on that day, or even three days previous to the date of the mailing of the alleged returns. Here is additional and conclusive evidence of fraud.

This is one of the most shameless attempts to stigmatize the will of the people and trample on the elective franchise that we have ever known. The certificate has been awarded to Mr. Given, but the whole matter will undergo an investigation before a judicial tribunal, when we hope the culprits will be discovered and properly punished. An example must be made, if we would preserve the purity of the franchise, and thus maintain our free institutions.

This fraud is, so bold and glaring as to startle even Republicans themselves. Several of the journals of that party, seeing no hope of its justification, denounce it in the strongest terms.

That the Democracy have been cheated in this way for several years, we have always believed—and believe it now more fixedly than ever.

Continued Agitation.

"Abolish slavery," the radicals used to say, "and agitation about the negro will cease." A great many good natured, credulous people believed them, but have at length found out their mistake. The radicals declare that "slavery is dead," but they dish up Santo, as a subject of agitation, in a new form. They now want to make him a voter, and threaten to prolong the "irrepressible conflict" unless this scheme to degrade the white man and the white man's ballot is carried out. But they would not rest content with even that.

That's It—In an article upon "Radicalism in Quandary," the Cleveland Plain Dealer settles the position of the Democracy and the President, and lays out the Rads. in the following brief and pungent sentence:

"We do not claim him as our man, nor are we to be committed to his unconstitutional support. We shall not stop to bandy words with small politicians as to whether Mr. Johnson has come to us, or we have gone to Mr. Johnson. It is enough for us to know that he is the uncompromising foe of red-mouthed radicalism, and enough for us to believe that he is too wise to be subjected to their wishes, and too firm to turn from his purposes by their base influence."

A Prediction.

Governor Brownlow, of Tennessee, in a recent letter to the Knoxville Whig, expresses the opinion that idleness, starvation and disease will remove from the sphere of mortal existence the majority of the negroes of this generation, and that the whole race, in this country, will gradually melt away and become extinct, like the Indians.

This has been the opinion of all sensible men, who looked at the question from a conservatorial stand-point, for the last two or three years, and our only marvel is that Governor Brownlow, who has been so stoutly afflicted with "bigger on the brain," should have got his eyes opened at last. That the poor negroes will be the greatest sufferers in the long run, from forced emancipation, is just as certain as that night follows day.

National Thanksgiving Day.

President Johnson has issued the following proclamation, appointing Thursday, December 7, as a day of National Thanksgiving:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity, and harmony, with a great enlargement of civil liberty; and

The Next Congress.—A Washington correspondent of the Advertiser has old political news from the Federal City gives him the following estimate of the "make up" of Congress, based upon the supposition that the Southern Representatives will be admitted, as follows:

Senate—Opposition 38; supporters 34; opposition majority 4.

In the following table of prices is shown what is sought the will of the people and trample on the elective franchise that we have ever known.
